

- 5.) Why didn't the U of M fight HUAC's case through the courts, rather than release records which all parties believed to be confidential? Since HUAC's right to exist is being challenged in the courts by the ACLU, why is the U of M not in the forefront in this challenge? Why are they not at least sympathetic to it?
- 6.) If, as the University administration now says, it is a matter of simple grace to notify faculty and students before taking action affecting their future lives, why did they not feel so last week? And will they feel so tomorrow?
- 7.) What arrangements are being made to ensure that decisions disrupting the lives of members of the academic community are not made without consulting those involved in advance?

WE WILL PRESENT THESE QUESTIONS TO VICE-PRESIDENT SMITH
IN HIS OFFICE, FIRST FLOOR ADMINISTRATION BUILDING,
AT 10 AM. WE WILL MEET FIRST IN THE LOBBY OF THE BUILDING.
WE ASK YOUR SUPPORT.
