

Dear Bob,

I am in the minority on the South African issue on this campus. When I speak of the minority, I am talking about those who voice their opinion. I am convinced that for every student who voices their opinion there are 2 who are not. These 2 silent students are probably for the idea of U-M investment in companies which have dealings with South Africa. I am personally upset with the manner in which the student protesters voice their opinion by disrupting the Regents' Meetings. The action which the Regents took was a wise one. I do not like the idea of police intervention and you avoided it. I feel that the Regents should make strong policy statement after evaluating the financial reports which you have requested. I wish you the best on April 19th. I've been asked to enclose this article & I wish to add one comment to it. Prof. Broomfield fails to mention the wise move of the Regents to avoid violence. I was in a gymnasium my Senior year of high school where a tear gas canister was detonated. I've seen the panic and panic of students and I am glad that you have chosen a course of action which took the safety of the students into account.

Sincerely,
