

SUMMARY TO DATE: COMMENTS ON SOUTH AFRICAN ISSUE

Date Received: May 24, 1983

From: Carl Shipley; Consultant to the Government of Namibia

Remarks: Black S. Africans need jobs and it is morally imperative that American firms remain active here.

Response sent: June 8, 1983, Letter A.

Date Received: May 13, 1983

From: Donald N. Frey; Chairman, Bell & Howell

Remarks: Exceptions made for Michigan companies are nothing more than an abrogation of the announced policies towards S. Africa. The Regental actions are both hypocritical and specifically discriminatory.

Date Received: May 20, 1983

Response sent: June 8, 1983, Letter A.

From: Whit Hillyer, Class of 1932, Presidents Club

Remarks: Has taken great pride in the University's decision. Considers the move as being especially courageous.

Date Received: May 10, 1983

Response sent: June 8, 1983, Letter B.

From: Niara Sudarkasa, Director, Ctr. for Afroamerican and African Studies, Professor of Anthropology

Remarks: Commends Regental decision. The small step will be recounted along with other sacrifices of the movement that brought down the apartheid decision.

Response sent: June 8, 1983, Letter B.

Date Received: May 5, 1983

From: William Searle

Remarks: Resigned from Pharmacy Advisory Program and Development Council Board

No response.

SUMMARY TO DATE: COMMENTS ON SOUTH AFRICAN ISSUE

Date Received: May 24, 1983

From: Carl Shipley; Consultant to the Government of Namibia

General Stance: Con

Remarks: Black S. Africans need jobs and it is morally imperative that American firms remain active here.

Response drafted: June 8, 1983, Letter A.

Date Received: May 13, 1983

From: Donald N. Frey; Chairman, Bell & Howell

General Stance: Con

Remarks: Exceptions made for Michigan companies are nothing more than an abrogation of the announced policies towards S. Africa. The Regental actions are both hypocritical and specifically discriminatory.

Date Received: May 20, 1983

Response drafted:

From: Whit Hillyer, Class of 1932, Presidents Club

General Stance: Pro

Remarks: Has taken great pride in the University's decision. Considers the move as being especially courageous.

Date Received: May 10, 1983

Response drafted: June 8, 1983, Letter B.

From: Niara Sudarkasa, Director, Ctr. for Afroamerican and African Studies, Professor of Anthropology

General Stance: Pro

Remarks: Commends Regental decision. The small step will be recounted along with other sacrifices of the movement that brought down the apartheid decision.

Response drafted: June 8, 1983, Letter B.

Date Received: May 5, 1983

From: William Searle

General Stance: Con

Remarks: Resigned from Pharmacy Advisory Program and Development
Council Board

No written response; visited by J. Cosovich

Date Received: June 9, 1983 (Was not sent to HTS)

From: Marc R. von Wyss

Remarks: Delete name from University Deans Club. University doesn't need his contributions if they can afford to divest.
Will continue to contribute to UM Musical Society and the Music
School.

Date Received: June 30, 1983

From: R. R. Sanjuro, D.D.S.

General Stance: Con

Remarks: "...for the immediate future, S. Africa is impregnable..." Business Week, July 4, 1983.

Response drafted: July 5, 1983